A LOVE STORY BEGINS

WELCOME TO THE KEADEEN HOTEL

For more than five decades, The Keadeen Hotel has had the privilege of being part of countless love stories.

Since the 1970s, generations of couples have chosen The Keadeen to celebrate their wedding day. While trends have changed and families have grown, one thing has remained constant, a commitment to creating celebrations that feel personal, elegant and unforgettable.

Set within beautifully landscaped gardens in the heart of County Kildare, The Keadeen brings together timeless surroundings, genuine Irish hospitality and an experienced wedding team who will guide you from your first viewing to your wedding day.

Over the years, we have welcomed couples back with their children and grandchildren, continuing a tradition of celebration that has unfolded across generations.

At The Keadeen, you are not simply choosing a wedding venue, but becoming part of a story more than fifty years in the making, one we would be honoured to share in.

THE WEDDING BANQUET

A CELEBRATION OF EXCEPTIONAL DINING

Sharing a meal has always been at the heart of life's greatest celebrations, and your wedding banquet is a moment to gather everyone you love around the table.

Our award-winning culinary team takes great pride in creating menus that bring together the finest seasonal ingredients and contemporary Irish cuisine. From beautifully presented starters and carefully crafted main courses to indulgent desserts and perfectly paired wines, every detail is thoughtfully prepared for you and your guests.

As glasses are raised, stories are shared and conversation fills the room, the wedding banquet becomes about so much more than the meal itself. It is a chance to sit together, to celebrate and to take in the joy of having all your favourite people gathered in one place.

Some of the most beautiful memories are made around the table, surrounded by the people you love.

2000s

Jennifer & Brian Murphy

"Our wedding day at The Keadeen was everything we had hoped for and more. Over the years, the memories of that special day have remained close to our hearts, and we will always be grateful to The Keadeen for making it so memorable."

CONTINUING YOUR CELEBRATION

THE DAY AFTER, TOGETHER

As the music fades and the final toast is shared, your celebration doesn't have to end.

Wake the next morning surrounded by the people who made your wedding day so special. From a leisurely brunch or informal lunch to a relaxed garden barbecue, we'll help you create a Day Two celebration with more time for good food, shared stories and the company of those you love most.

For guests extending their stay, County Kildare offers plenty to discover, from Kildare Village and the Curragh Plains to the Irish National Stud & Gardens — or simply enjoy a slower day at The Keadeen before the journey home.

Because some celebrations deserve a little more time together.

THE KEADEEN PROMISE

WITH YOU, ALWAYS

For more than fifty years, couples have trusted The Keadeen Hotel with one of life's most treasured occasions. It is a privilege we never take for granted.

From your first visit to your final farewell, our promise is simple: to listen, to guide you with experience and honesty, and to care for every detail with the warmth and hospitality for which The Keadeen is known.

Our wedding, culinary and hotel teams work together with one purpose — to create a celebration that feels entirely yours and memories you will carry with you long after the last dance.

OUR PROMISE TO YOU

To welcome you and your guests with warmth, to make every detail matter, and to create a celebration filled with exceptional food, thoughtful hospitality and memories you'll carry with you long after the day.
